Arrived at 22 Shiprock and could not hear any music, so I went to the door to speak to Amy. She brought me to the rear of their home where I could see what appeared to me to be the back yard of 98 Atlantic Avenue. I told Amy that I would confirm that it was number 98, but if it is then there is a Birthday Party being held there tomorrow night, and that I was personally working the Detail there. I told her under those circumstances she should not here anymore music today, but if it does start up again and it is after 9:00 pm to give us another call. I also added that they are scheduled to shut down the party and the band no later than 9:30 tomorrow night, and that I would make sure they did not go beyond that. Amy thanked me for the information, and said she required no further assistance.

Pulled up next to the same operator at the double lane at the traffic lights at the Post Office entrance. Verified there was no eye protection and asked operator to pull into the Fern Crossing Parking Lot. Warning was issued for same, but advised Jonathan that he needed to obtain some eye protection close by prior to operating the motorcycle again. He walked over to Marshall's to get some sunglasses. Although the plate was on a Red Honda (2005) motorcycle, it came back in SPOTS registered to a 2003 Kawasaki, color black. Jonathan told me he had transferred the plate from the Kawasaki to the Honda about four weeks ago. Gave him the benefit of the doubt on the misuse of plates and did not 10-28 the motorcycle. Warning issued for Eye Protection Violation.
